

Evofem's Phexxi Contraceptive Gel Added to SimpleHealth Product Offering

-- Phexxi is the first and only hormone-free contraceptive offered by reproductive telehealth leader SimpleHealth to its patients --

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 28, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Evofem Biosciences, Inc. (OTCQB: EVFM) announced today that reproductive telehealth leader SimpleHealth now offers Phexxi® (lactic acid, citric acid and potassium bitartrate), the first and only hormone-free vaginal gel approved by the FDA for contraception.

"This partnership with SimpleHealth will increase awareness of Phexxi and provide access to the only non-hormonal birth control women use on demand," said Sandra Pelletier, Chief Executive Officer of Evofem. "This beneficial alliance "meets" women where they are and delivers on our strategy to expand access to Phexxi."

"SimpleHealth believes everyone deserves access to birth control. We are proud to offer Phexxi to meet the needs of the many women who want or need a non-hormonal birth control method," said Carrie Siu Butt, Chief Executive Officer of SimpleHealth.

The SimpleHealth offering includes contraceptive counseling, resources, and education about women's health as well as online prescriptions, automatic refills and free home delivery of more than 120 brand name and generic products including hormonal birth control – pill, patch or ring – and now hormone-free Phexxi contraceptive vaginal gel.

Phexxi appeals to a wide variety of women who seek hormone-free contraception, whether by need or by choice, offering them a safe and effective, FDA-approved contraceptive method that empowers women with access to contraception they use only when they need it.
